

GOVERNOR . . . Edward O. Mitchell, M.D., charter "Gold Coat" (Gold Honor Club) president of the Torrance Sertoma Club in 1966, has been elected governor of the West Los Angeles District of Sertoma, International. Dr. Mitchell will be responsible for more than 60 clubs in the area between Santa Monica and Palos Verdes. A resident of Palos Verdes, Dr. Mitchell was elected to his new office at the Pacific Southwest Regional Convention of Sertoma International in Reno, Nev.

United Way Names New Harbor Area Directors

The Harbor Area United Way board of directors met in Torrance last week to discuss affairs for their district, which includes Carson, Gardena, Harbor City, Palos Verdes, Lomita, Rolling Hills, San Pedro, Wilmington, and Torrance.

Alan Smith, Indian Village; and Sidney Wachs, Torrance. Board members joining the staff in November include Jack O. Schmidt, Milton Isbell, and Clinton Cooke, all of Torrance.

At the meeting, two newly-elected members of the board were introduced. They are Michael T. Quaranta of Torrance and Marvin Beyrodt Jr., of Carson.

Other board members include Lt. Douglas E. Cook, Torrance policeman; Jack Davis; Miles Davis, Torrance;

Jim Fenner, regional public information chairman for United Way/United Crusade, announced the slogan for the 1969 campaign as "Who Cares? — You Do Through Your United Crusade."

The next board meeting was set for July 17 at the Torrance office of United Way, Harbor area.

John Duff Becomes Top Scout

John Duff III, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Duff Jr., 4913 Paseo del Paven, received his Eagle Scout award Monday at Troop 656 Eagle Court of Honor.

Duff entered Scouting in 1963 in March of this year, Lt. Col. R. G. Dingman, Scoutmaster of Troop 656, certified that he had met all requirements for Eagle rank and submitted his name to the South Bay Eagle Character Board. In addition to his Eagle rank, Duff is a brotherhood member of the Order of the Arrow, a Scouting honor society, and has earned the God and Country award presented by St. Francis Episcopal Church.

This summer Duff will be one of the Los Angeles Area Council representatives at the National Jamboree to be held in July at Idaho Falls.
